

SCHOOL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES – TIER PLUMBING COURSE

The plumbing tier courses are designed by test review clock hours and tiered based on previous tier knowledge. (248 CMR 11.06(2)(b) 1-7). Each Tier shall contain 110-clock hours, shall be consecutive, and shall be designed to coincide with the years of experience of the apprentice student. Students shall be required to demonstrate proficiency and competency in each tier by passing an examination designed by the school and/or the instructor. Students may not advance from one Tier to another until the clock hour and examination requirements of the preceding Tier have been successfully completed and documented. Regular class hour attendance is required. Each class time is posted in the calendar advertisement and kept through the class total hour period.

Attendance:

- Sign-in: Student must sign attendance sheets for each class attended. Student hours for each class will not be recorded if he/she did not sign in or it is not legible. Attendance will be recorded by the full hour(s) attended only. The sign in sheet for each class is the official recorded document for attendance and scores. Any student signing another students name or falsifying times or scores is grounds for disciplinary action up to and including termination from the class.
- Tardiness: Any student arriving late for class shall sign in with the instructor upon arrival and the instructor shall record the time of arrival on the sign in sheet. Attendance will be recorded by the full hour(s) attended only, partial hours will be dropped and have to be made up.
- Absenteeism: Attendance hours are required. Serious illness, doctor's excuse or a family death are acceptable reasons for absence. Students are allowed to make-up up to two missed classes for acceptable absentness at no charge during the school year. Students must discuss acceptable make-up schedules with their instructor. Any other unacceptable absentness may only be made up at a fee of the current class hour rate times 1.5, paid in full prior to the make-up and approved by the instructor and office.
- Leave of absence: Students requiring a leave of absence must notify their instructor or the office in writing. A school hour attendance certificate will be issued for partial credit hours only, and might not be acceptable at another institution for continuation of the course. Refunds will be handled per the refund policy. Student may opt to continue the course within 1 year if left paid in full.
- Dismissal: The instructor is in charge of his class. A student may be dismissed from a class with no credit obtained for any of the following reasons: Verbal abuse of any member of the faculty or another student, excessive use of profanity, disruption of the class, defacing or destruction of school property and/or appears to be under the influence of a controlled substance.
- Breaks: At least one, fifteen minute break will be given in each class at or about midway through the time. Any other breaks are at the discretion of the instructor. Tardiness after breaks will be recorded as written above.
